	Annex II- Roles and Responsibilities of Individual Members of the Managing Board of GBI	10

This Charter aims to establish the operating rules and principles for the composition, appointment, rights and duties of members of the Managing Board of GarantiBank International N.V. (hereinafter “the Bank” or “GBI”) individually and as a whole. This Charter was adopted in full by the Managing Board and approved by the Supervisory Board on 31 October 2019.

1. Status and Content of the Charter

1.1. This Charter is drawn up in accordance with the Bank’s Articles of Association and the rules set herein are complementary to the Articles of Association and/or Dutch and European laws and regulations applicable to the Managing Board from time to time. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Charter with applicable laws and regulations or the Articles of Association the latter shall both prevail. Where this Charter is compatible with the Articles of Association but in conflict with applicable law and regulations, the latter will prevail if it is mandatory. If one or more provisions of this Charter are or become invalid, this will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The Charter is periodically reviewed and amended following developments in laws and regulations related to corporate governance and regulations for financial institutions.

1.2. The following Annexes are attached to, and form an integral part of, this Charter:

Annex 1: Definitions

Annex 2: Roles and Responsibilities of Individual Members of the Managing Board

1.3. The Managing Board declares to be bound by the obligations arising from this Charter to the extent that they apply to it and its individual members. This Charter and any changes thereto need to be approved by the Managing Board and notified to the Supervisory Board.

1.4. Each individual member of the Managing Board has taken the Banker’s oath. On appointment of new members, the Managing Board shall ensure that these members promptly take the Banker’s oath upon appointment to his/her function.

1.5. This Charter has been published on the website of the Bank, www.garantibank.eu

2. Responsibilities of the Managing Board

2.1. The Managing Board as a whole shall function as a collegial body as referred to in section 2:129 of the Dutch Civil Code. The Managing Board members shall be collectively responsible for GBI’s management, the general affairs and the business connected with it. The Managing Board shall perform its duties in a meticulous, expert and fair manner taking into account the applicable laws, codes of conduct and regulations. In performing its duties the Managing Board shall be guided by the interests of GBI and its business. It shall take into account the relevant interests of its stakeholders such as GBI’s clients, its shareholder(s) and its employees.

2.2. The Managing Board shall ensure that GBI’s duty of care for the client is embedded in GBI’s culture. The Managing Board shall ensure that the principles of GBI’s Code of Conduct and the banker’s oath referred to in article 1.4 form the guidelines for the behaviour of all of GBI’s employees, as set from time to time by the Managing Board, and will be expressly pointed out to any new employee of GBI and the Managing Board shall ensure that all employees are required to comply with these principles.

2.3. The duties and responsibilities of the Managing Board shall in any event include:

- (A) the achievement of GBI’s objectives and its mission;
- (B) the general state of affairs and the results of GBI;
- (C) determining the overall business strategy of GBI within the applicable legal and regulatory framework taking into account GBI’s long-term financial interests, solvency and vision of Garanti Group and BBVA Group;

- (D) taking any decisions that are of material significance of the risk profile, the capital allocation or the liquidity impact of GBI;
- (E) establishing a remuneration framework that is in line with the risk strategies of GBI;
- (F) preparing GBI's remuneration policy, for final approval by the Supervisory Board as well as implementing and monitoring this remuneration policy;
- (G) defining the policy on integer behaviour and the proposed translation thereof into standards and rules;
- (H) fully knowing and understanding the operational structure of GBI and ensuring that it is in line with the approved business strategy and risk policy;
- (I) a policy on the nomination and succession of individuals with key functions in GBI;
- (J) adopting, implementing, monitoring and, where necessary, proposing to adjust to the Supervisory Board, GBI's overall risk policy and setting GBI's risk appetite;
- (K) establishing limits as required to ensure that the bank always operates within the risk appetite approved by the Supervisory Board;
- (L) ensuring that effective internal risk management and control systems are in place, discussing its effectiveness and its operations with the Committees and reporting on this issue in the Annual Report;
- (M) ensuring that a systematic audit is conducted of the management of the risks related to GBI's business activities;
- (N) setting and overseeing the overall risk strategy and policy of GBI, including its risk tolerance/appetite and its risk management framework, together with the Supervisory Board;
- (O) maintaining and preparing the financial reporting process;
- (P) preparing the annual accounts and drawing up the annual budget and important capital investments of GBI;
- (Q) giving advice in connection with the nomination of the external accountant of GBI;
- (R) setting a robust and transparent organizational structure with effective communication and reporting channels;
- (S) determining, together with the Supervisory Board, the corporate governance structure of GBI;
- (T) compliance with and enforcing GBI's corporate governance structure;
- (U) compliance with legislation, Articles of Association, regulations and codes that apply to GBI;
- (V) assessing the performance of the compliance function annually, and informing the Supervisory Board of its assessment.
- (W) developing, propagating and enforcing, together with the Supervisory Board, standards and rules in GBI with respect to integrity, morality and leadership, in addition to monitoring the checks and balances, the IT infrastructure and compliance;

2.4 The Managing Board should also regularly review and adjust documentation, policies and strategies related to these responsibilities. The Managing Board is responsible for appropriate communication with supervisory authorities and other interested parties.

- 2.5 The Managing Board members may divide their duties by mutual consultation and subject to the prior approval of the Supervisory Board. In case of the absence of a Managing Board member, his or her duties and powers shall be carried out by another Managing Board member to be designated by the Managing Board. In case of absence of more than eight weeks, the Supervisory Board shall be notified of that designation.
- 2.6 Each Managing Board member shall be accountable to the Managing Board for the fulfilment of his or her duties and must therefore report to the Managing Board on a regular basis and in such a manner as to give the Managing Board a proper insight in the performance of his or her duties, the foregoing also in view of the Managing Board's joint responsibility.
- 2.7 Each Managing Board member shall have the right to receive from other Managing Board members and from employees any information about matters which he/she may deem useful or appropriate in connection with his/her joint responsibility for GBI's management. He/she must consult with the other Managing Board members if the implementation of his/her duties affects the implementation of the duties of the other Managing Board members or if the significance of the matter requires consultation with the other Managing Board members. This includes in any event the actions referred to in article 2.8 of this Charter.
- 2.8 The Managing Board and/or at least two members of the Managing Board acting together are entitled to represent GBI. Furthermore, one member of the Managing Board acting jointly with one holder of power of attorney or two holders of a power of attorney acting jointly, as far as holders of a power of attorney are concerned, with due observance of the powers granted to them, may represent GBI.
- 2.9 The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall appoint the External Auditor to audit the annual accounts. If the latter fails to do so, the Supervisory Board shall be the competent body to appoint the External Auditor. If the Supervisory Board fails to do so, the Managing Board shall appoint the External Auditor. The appointment may at all times be revoked by the General Meeting of Shareholders and by those who made the appointment. The Supervisory Board may revoke an appointment by the Management Board.
- 2.10 Each Managing Board member shall sign the annual accounts or if a signature is lacking, this shall be explained with reasons given.
- 2.11 The Managing Board adheres to the articles of association of GBI and to the applicable statutory obligations. The Managing Board shall submit for approval to the Supervisory Board any specific corporate actions as required by article 18 of the Articles of Association. Furthermore, the Managing Board shall submit for approval to the Supervisory Board the following matters:
- a. the strategy designed to achieve the business objectives of the Bank;
 - b. all proposals regarding remuneration as required under GBI's governance of remuneration policies;
 - c. the annual budget of the Bank;
 - d. the risk appetite of GBI.

3. Composition and expertise of the Managing Board

- 3.1 The Managing Board consists of such number of members as determined by the Supervisory Board in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Managing Board will be composed in such a way that it is able to perform its tasks properly with a focus on complementarity and diversity.
- 3.2 The Managing Board shall have a chairman designated by the Supervisory Board, who shall ensure the proper functioning of the Managing Board as a whole, and if necessary a vice-chairman will be appointed, to replace the chairman in his/her absence. Furthermore, the Managing Board may charge individual members of the Managing Board with a specific division of duties and responsibilities without prejudice to the collective responsibility of the Managing Board as a whole. The allocation of duties shall be subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board. The division of approved duties and responsibilities of each of the members of the Managing Board are specified in Annex 2.

- 3.3 The Managing Board shall appoint a secretary who may or may not be a Managing Board member who among other things will take written minutes of each meeting.
- 3.4 Each member of the Managing Board shall possess thorough knowledge of the financial sector in general and the banking sector in particular. Each member of the Managing Board shall have thorough knowledge of GBI's function in society and of the interests of all parties involved in GBI. In addition, each member of the Managing Board shall possess thorough knowledge so that he or she is able to assess and determine the main aspects of GBI's overall policy and then form a balanced and independent opinion about the risks involved.
- 3.5 A Managing Board member shall be trustworthy and act with integrity. If circumstances occur in respect of a Managing Board member that may be of influence on his or her integrity and may result in the Dutch Central Bank having reasonable doubts on his or her integrity, the Managing Board member will promptly notify the responsible person at GarantiBank, the head of compliance and/or the chairman of the Supervisory Board and will make sure that the relevant circumstances are reported to the Dutch Central Bank.

4. Managing Board Committees

- 4.1 The Managing Board may set up one or more specialized Committees taking into account the size and complexity of the Bank to assist in the performance of its duties, and is responsible for the appointment of its members to which it has delegated the power to prepare decisions on certain matters as specified in the rules of procedure of the Committees, setting out, among other things, the composition, duties and responsibilities of the Committee concerned.
- 4.2 The Managing Board shall remain responsible for the decisions prepared and made by any Committee. A Committee may only exercise such powers as are explicitly attributed or delegated to it and may never exercise powers beyond those exercisable by the Managing Board as a whole.
- 4.3 At the time of adoption of this Charter the Managing Board has the following committees: (i) Asset and Liability Committee; (ii) Credit Committee (iii) Restructuring Credit Committee (iv) Client Acceptance Committee; (v) Risk Management Committee; (vi) Compliance Committee; (vii) Corporate Assurance Committee; (viii) Integrity Committee; (ix) Disciplinary Committee; (x) Operational Risk Admission and Product Governance Committee; (xi) Complaint Committee; and (xii) Outsourcing Committee.
- 4.4 For each Committee a procedure is drawn up stating the Committee's role and responsibilities, its composition and the manner in which it performs its duties.

5. (Re) appointment, term and resignation

- 5.1 The members of the Managing Board shall be (re)appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders as provided for by the Articles of Association and subject to approval of the Dutch Central Bank and ECB if applicable. The proposal for the appointment or reappointment shall state the reasons for recommendation and the proposal.
- 5.2 The members of the Managing Board may at any time be suspended or dismissed by the General Meeting of Shareholders in as much the General Meeting of Shareholders has not assigned another body of GBI in this respect.
- 5.3 The members of the Managing Board may at any time be suspended or dismissed by the Supervisory Board. Such suspension may be ended by the General Meeting of Shareholders at any time.
- 5.4 Any suspension may be extended one or more times, but may not last longer than three months in the aggregate. If at the end of that period no decision has been taken on removal of the suspension or dismissal the suspension shall cease.

5.5 A Managing Board member may hold no more than two supervisory directorships in a large company as defined in the Dutch Act on Management and Supervision. A Managing Board member may not be chairman of a supervisory board of such a large company. A Managing Board member shall not accept a supervisory directorship of a large company or any other external additional function or extracurricular function without prior approval of the Supervisory Board and prior advice of the Chief Compliance Officer of the Bank. Such position must not conflict with the Bank's interest or reputation.

6. Remuneration

6.1 The remuneration of the Managing Board shall be determined within the scope of the remuneration policy adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The remuneration takes into account the responsibilities and scope of tasks of the members of the Managing Board as well as the economic situation and long term performance of GBI.

6.2 The Remuneration Committee of GBI submits any policy adjustments on the remuneration of the Managing Board for review to the Supervisory Board and for adoption to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

7. Permanent Education

7.1 The chairman of the Managing Board shall ensure and supervise the presence of a permanent education programme for all members of the Managing Board, the aim of which is to maintain and, where necessary broaden their expertise, such program shall cover relevant developments within GBI and the financial services sector, financial, social and legal affairs, and corporate governance in general and the financial sector in particular, the duty of care towards the client and his/her interest, integrity, the IT infrastructure, risk management, financial reporting and audit;

7.2 Every member of the Managing Board shall take part in the programme and meets the requirements of the permanent education programme.

7.3 The Managing Board shall evaluate the permanent education programme annually to identify any other aspects in respect of which further training and education is required.

8. Managing Board Meetings

8.1 The Managing Board shall meet as often as deemed necessary or desirable for a proper functioning of the Managing Board. Furthermore, the Managing Board shall meet at least three times a year in a joint meeting with the Supervisory Board whenever the Supervisory Board or Managing Board (or one of its members) has requested a meeting.

8.2 Managing Board meetings are generally held at the offices of GBI, but may also take place elsewhere. In addition, meetings may be held by telephone or videoconference provided that all participants can hear each other simultaneously.

8.3 The Chairman of the Managing Board chairs the meetings of the Managing Board and ensures the orderly and efficient conduct of the meeting. In the absence of the Chairman and Vice-chairman, the meeting itself shall appoint one of the members of the Managing Board as Chairman of the meeting.

9. Managing Board Resolutions

9.1 Each member of the Managing Board shall have one vote on each matter to be decided by the Managing Board.

9.2 Unless otherwise provided in this Charter or in the Articles of Association, the Managing Board shall pass resolutions in a meeting at which at least the majority of the Managing Board members are present or represented. A co-member of the Managing Board authorized in writing may represent a fellow Managing Board member. A Managing Board member may not act as representative for more than one co-member.

9.3 If there is insufficient consensus at the meeting about certain subjects, the Chairman of the Managing Board may refer the relevant item on the agenda to the next meeting for further consideration. In case there is no consensus in the next meeting, the Chief Executive Officer shall have the casting vote.

9.4 The Managing Board may also pass resolutions outside a meeting, provided the same is effected in writing by means of any usual channels of communication, including e-mail, the proposal concerned is submitted to all Managing Board members and none of them have objected to this manner of adopting resolutions within twenty-four hours after receipt of the proposal and the proposal itself.

10. Conflict of interests and Rules of Conduct

10.1 A member of the Managing Board shall not participate in the discussions and/or decision-taking process on a subject or transaction in relation to which he/she has a conflict of interest with GBI. Such transaction, if approved, must be concluded on terms customary in the sector concerned. Resolutions to enter into such transaction must be approved by the Supervisory Board.

10.2 A member of the Managing Board shall in any event have a conflict of interests with GBI if:

- i) he/she personally has a material financial interest in a company with which GBI intends to enter into a transaction;
- ii) he/she has a family law relationship (his/her spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage to the second degree as defined under Dutch law) with a member of the managing board or supervisory board of the company with which GBI intends to enter into a transaction;
- iii) he/she is a member of the managing board or supervisory board of, or holds similar office with, the company with which GBI intends to enter into a transaction;
- iv) under applicable law such conflict of interests exists or is deemed to exist;
- v) the Supervisory Board has ruled that such conflict of interests exists or is deemed to exist.

10.3 Each member of the Managing Board shall immediately report any (potential) conflict of interests concerning a member of the Managing Board to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and to the other members of the Managing Board. The member of the Managing Board with such (potential) conflict of interests must provide the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the other members of the Managing Board with all information relevant to the conflict of interests, including information relating to the persons with whom he/she has a close family relationship under Dutch law as referred to under (b) above. In all circumstances other than the ones listed under iv and v above, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board will determine whether a reported (potential) conflict of interests qualifies as a conflict of interests to which article 10.1 applies and whether a member of the Managing Board shall not participate in the discussion and/or decision-taking process on a subject or transaction in relation to which he/she has a conflict of interests with GBI without such member being present.

10.4 GBI's best interests bind all members of the Managing Board. No member of the Managing Board may pursue personal interests in his/her decisions or use business opportunities intended for GBI for himself/herself. A Managing Board Member shall not:

- i) enter into competition with GBI and/or its group companies;
- ii) demand or accept (substantial) gifts from GBI and/or its group companies for him or his/her spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree as defined under Dutch law;
- iii) provide unjustified advantages to third parties to the detriment of GBI and/or its group companies; or

- iv) take advantage of business opportunities to which GBI, and or its group companies are entitled for himself or for his spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree.

10.5 Advisory and other service agreements and contracts for work between a member of the Managing Board and GBI require the Supervisory Board's approval.

10.6 A member of the Managing Board may, to the extent applicable, not take part in the discussion and decision-making on a subject or transaction in relation to which he/she has a direct or indirect conflict of interest. If as a result no management resolution can be adopted, the resolution shall be adopted by the Supervisory Board.

11. Relationship with the Supervisory Board

11.1 The Managing Board and Supervisory Board cooperate closely in the interests of GBI. The Managing Board coordinates GBI's strategy with the Supervisory Board and discusses the current state of strategy implementation with the Supervisory Board at regular intervals as deemed necessary or otherwise requested by the Supervisory Board.

11.2 Providing sufficient information to the Supervisory Board is the joint responsibility of the Managing Board (providing) and the Supervisory Board (asking). The Managing Board informs the Supervisory Board regularly, without delay and comprehensively, of all issues important to GBI with regard to planning, business development, risk profile and internal control environment. The Managing Board shall provide the Supervisory Board with the relevant information so that it is in a position to form a sound opinion as to whether commercial activities are generally in line with the GBI's risk appetite.

11.3 The Managing Board submits the Supervisory Board information in time (and in writing if possible) about facts and developments with respect to GBI which the Supervisory Board may require in order to exercise its duties properly.

11.4 Each year, without prejudice to the above, the Managing Board shall provide the Supervisory Board with documents required for decisions, in particular, the Annual Financial Statements, the Consolidated Financial Statements and the External Auditors' Report are to be sent to the members of the Supervisory Board, to the extent possible, in due time before the meeting.

11.5 The Supervisory Board, and its individual members, each have their own responsibility for obtaining, when necessary, additional information from the Managing Board and the External Auditor that the Supervisory Board requires for the due performance of its duties. An open discussion between the Managing Board and Supervisory Board is required as well as among the members within the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board. The comprehensive observance of confidentiality is of paramount importance for this.

11.6 If a member of the Managing Board is absent or is prevented from performing his duties, the remaining members or member of the Managing Board shall be temporarily entrusted with the entire management of GBI. If all members of the Managing Board are absent or are prevented from performing their duties, the management of GBI shall be temporarily entrusted to the Supervisory Board which shall then be authorized to entrust the management temporarily to one or more persons, whether or not from among its members. Members of the Supervisory Board who take on the management of the company temporarily, where the Managing Board members are absent or unable to discharge their duties, shall (temporarily) not perform their duties as a Supervisory Board member.

12. Relationship with the General Meeting of Shareholders

12.1 The Managing Board members shall, if required and/or appropriate, together with the Supervisory Board members attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.

12.2 The Managing Board members shall provide the General Meeting of Shareholders with any information it may require concerning an item on the agenda, unless an important interest (zwaarwiegend belang) of GBI or any law, rules or regulations applicable to GBI prevent it from doing so. The Managing Board shall specify the reasons for invoking such important interests.

12.3 The Managing Board shall procure that each substantial change in the corporate governance structure of GBI, after prior approval of the Supervisory Board, is submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for discussion under a separate agenda item.

13. Confidentiality

13.1 The Managing Board members shall treat all information and documentation acquired within the framework of their position as Managing Board member with the necessary discretion and, in case of classified information, with the appropriate secrecy. Classified information shall not be disclosed outside the Managing Board, made public or otherwise made available to third parties, even after resignation from the Managing Board, unless it has been made public by GBI or it has been established that the information is already in the public domain.

14. Indemnity

14.1 GBI indemnifies, as a consequence of their membership to the Managing Board, each of the Managing Board members from and against any liability resulting from any act or omission by a member of the Managing Board in the performance of his/her tasks and responsibilities as member of the Managing Board, provided that such liability was not caused by gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such Managing Board member. If such Managing Board member is held liable (in or out of court), he or she shall immediately (i) report this to GBI; and (ii) submit all relevant information to GBI, upon request or even unasked. This indemnity shall only apply to the extent that the liability is not fully covered by GBI's directors' and officers' liability insurance.

15. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

15.1 This Charter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Netherlands.

15.2 The courts of Amsterdam shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising from or in connection with this Charter.
